IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE SIDE, JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO.454 OF 2006

Prince S/o Madanlal Goyal ...Petitioner.
Versus
The State of Maharashtra and Ors. ...Respondents.

Mr.A.P.Mundargi, Senior Counsel, with Mr.Mohan P.Tekavde Advocate for the petitioner.
Mrs.A.S.Pai, APP, for the State.

CORAM : D.G.DESHPANDE AND SMT.V.K.TAHILRAMANI, JJ.
DATED : MARCH 31, 2006.

P.C.:

. Heard the learned Advocate for the petitioner and Mrs.A.S.Pai learned APP for the State.

2. One offence vide C.R.No.76 of 2005 has been registered against the petitioner at Pant Nagar Police Station and another C.R.No.338 of 2005 came to be registered which was subsequently transferred to the crime branch. The learned APP makes a statement that the investigation is going on in the said crime and it is being conducted by the crime branch and during the investigation all the aspects will be considered. Hence there is no need to take over the crime C.R.No.76 of 2005 by the crime branch.

3. However, in the facts and circumstances, we direct that crime branch to take over C.R.No.76 of 2005 from Pant Nagar Police Station for investigation and any other offences against the petitioner arising out of the said transaction in future. If at all any practical difficulty arises in this regard to the crime branch, they can approach this Court. A.C.P Ashok, Economics Offences Wing, Crime Branch, Mumbai is present when this order is passed.
